8th 8 pm $15 Howard Lyons
 Nominated for Best Folk Recording Artist for the Native American Music Awards, singer, songwriter and musician Howard Lyons has been creating music that blends the traditional sounds and values of his native Mohawk culture with contemporary folk sensibilities. His rich voice, lively guitar style and thought-provoking, spirit-moving ballads have put him on stage in many concert halls and Pow Wow events throughout the United States and Canada. Moving flawlessly between the English and Mohawk languages, Howard sings the traditional songs of his people in his own compositions, which he calls Native Folk. His original music has an eclectic flavor that reflects the stories of traditional American Indian life.

20th 8 pm $20 An Evening With... Cathie Ryan CD Release Event!
 Cathie Ryan's New CD, "The Farthest Wave" has finally arrived!! And Cathie will be kicking off the CD release tour from The Night Eagle Cafe... accompanied by her band... Greg Anderson (Guitar/bozuki/bass), Sarah Milonovich (Fiddles/whistles/fultes/vocals), Brendan Dolan (Keyboards/flutes/winds), and Brian Mellick (Percussion and various other sounds)....This will be a magical evening and one that I have been waiting a long time for. It's been years since Cathie's been here, so let's give her a warm welcome back... Ken

29th 8 pm $15 An Evening With David Jacobs-Strain
 "I just saw him at a festival and can testify, he was brilliant solo and shined alongside more seasoned players. His covers are fresh, masterful and authoritative. And his original tunes are knock-outs, combining the emotional truth of his playing with that uncanny, knowing voice and with subject matter deep beyond expectation... blues that send shivers along your spine."

9th 8 pm $15 Cliff Eberhardt
 Guitarist, singer and songwriter Cliff Eberhardt, often referred to as one of the "new folk" artists on the scene, comes from suburban Philadelphia, historically a strong folk music area. Raised in a musical family in the 1960s, the self-taught guitarist began performing at age eight and performed with his brother while in high school. In the mid-1970s, he relocated to southern Illinois and found a singer-songwriter scene there. He continued to hone his skills as a performer, singer, guitarist and songwriter. Since the late 1970s, he's been based in New York, one of the early pioneers in Greenwich Village's 1980s folk music revival.

30th 8 pm $15 The Sloan Wainwright Band
 Sloan Wainwright has been a pioneer all her life. A forerunner in the independent music scene long before it became hip to walk the road less travelled, Sloan is an artist whose passionate work and extraordinary life have fused to burn a new definition for women in music. An outstanding and highly original vocalist, Sloan is a compelling performer best known for her rich earthy contralto, intensely personal lyrics, and an innovative approach to song merging distinctive elements of rock, folk, jazz, and blues to create a soulful hybrid.

Sunday

3rd 7:30pm $15 Phil Och's Song Night
 Tribute to the music of Phil Ochs w/Kim and Reggie Harris, Aztec Two Step, Greg Greenway, John Flynn, David Roth, and Magpie

The late Phil Ochs was one of the most important singer/songwriters during the 1960s--his songs have been covered by literally scores of other artists in a myriad of genres. For more than 20 years, Sonny Ochs has been honoring her brother by producing concerts featuring contemporary artists singing Phil Ochs songs as well as their own.

On April 3, Kim & Reggie Harris, Greg Greenway, John Flynn, David Roth, Magpie, and Aztec 2 step will be the featured performers at The Night Eagle Cafe's Phil Ochs Song Night.... "This is a show not to be missed!!.....I've been waiting years to present this one."...Ken

24th 8 pm $15 The McKrells
 The McKrells deliver a unique musical vocabulary and humble their peers in the process. "Traditional suits-and-ties bluegrass The McKrells are not... But those hip enough... will soon be awash in a sound that can best be described as Irish bluegrass. Yes, it's bluegrass, mostly, but there's a lilt to the tunes, a bouncing drive to the melodies, the trace of an accent in Kevin's vocals, and here and there a touch of melancholy that seems to go hand in hand with the Irish persona."

6th 8 pm $15 Tret Fure
 A singer-songwriter, multi-instrumentalist and producer, Tret Fure is also a ground-breaker and one of the most respected women in Women's Music. Her 8-album discography includes work with Spencer Davis and Cris Williamson, as well as 3 acclaimed solo releases. "Fure engineers, harmonizes and arranges as though these skills were as simple as munching a croissant. The result is, at times, breathtaking."

7th 8 pm $15 Leni Stern
 Leni Stern is perpetual motion. When she's not wearing one of her many professional hats (singer, guitarist, label owner, author, composer, orchestrator), she is wearing one or more of the other many hats that make her who she is: An unassuming and humble role model she certainly is, given her stellar 17-year, 12-album recording career. Gibson has chosen her as the Female Guitarist of the Year five consecutive times

Sunday

1st 8 pm $20 An Evening With... John Renbourn & Jacquie McShee
 Master guitarist John Renbourn and vocalist Jacqui McShee, founders of the seminal British folk-rock band Pentangle, bring to the stage a rich repertoire developed over four decades of musical collaboration. John takes listeners through a landscape of masterful playing in a fusion of British and Celtic folk music with jazz, blues, ragtime, classical, Middle Eastern and pre-Renaissance music. Known for her easy soprano and wide-ranging tastes, Jacqui has remained a constantly experimenting presence in Pentangle through it's many personnel changes.

14th 8 pm $20 John Gorka
 Rolling Stone calls Gorka "the preeminent male singer-songwriter of the New Folk Movement." Minneapolis Star Tribune says he's "one of the smartest and most authentic folk voices of the decade," and Boston Tab calls him "a tunesmith of the highest order." We know that he writes with uncommon grace, real beauty, and open eyes. It's been many years since he's performed here, and we are honored by his return.

15th 8 pm $15 FalconRidge Folk Fest Preview Tour
 Free Ticket Giveaways Start Tonight!

21st 8 pm $15 An Evening With... Jeremy Wallace Band
 Jeremy Wallace started writing songs the way many singer-songwriters do: he culled personal experiences from volumes of journals packed into milk crates he had kept since he was a teenager. Then somewhere along the line, Jeremy Wallace's personal lyrics merged with the lives of lonely fictional characters-the unlucky, the heartbroken, blue collar joes who drank too much, smoked too much, loved too much for their own good- and his music took a turn. Instead of the self-absorbed world of a teenager, a mature narrative voice emerged one that reflected his world but that connected with ordinary people. When audiences hear Jeremy's music, they see themselves in the stories he weaves

Due to the ever-increasing costs of trying to keep a venue as small as The Night Eagle open, we are feeling the need to cut costs wherever possible. Printing and postage are among the highest of the hidden costs. In order to operate as economically as we can, we have added to the web page an icon that will enable everyone to print their own copy of the calendar one month at a time. There will also be a place to sign up for the email newsletter and a place to remove your name from the hard copy mailing list. We hope all of you will take advantage of these cost cutting features. Thank you for your support and understanding, hope we hear from you. Ken Millett

10th 8pm $15 The Burns Sisters
 You can think about the Burns Sisters in terms of style, influences, harmonic choices - all of the everyday ways of categorizing music-but the essence of these women singing together is a matter of spirit. Annie, Marie, and Jeanne travel an inner path they know by heart, and walk both alone and in skin-close harmonies-their discography reveals some of the most edging women's voices performing today. 24th 8pm $15 Vance Gilbert
 "Vance Gilbert strikes just like lightning. Gilbert's voice has been called 'undeniably expressive,' 'remarkable,' and 'stunning' by contemporary critics, and rightly so. Gilbert's songs have the piercing quality of a dart shot right through the heart." -New Texas Magazine
 "When songwriter Vance Gilbert exploded on the Boston scene, the boom was heard all over New England." -Boston Globe

25th 8pm $15 Jeremy Kittle Trio
 Jeremy Kittle is rapidly earning a reputation as one of the nation's top young traditional musicians. Winner of the US National Scottish Fiddle Championship in 2000, Jeremy won the Junior National Scottish Fiddle Championship the previous two years and also qualified for the All-Ireland in Irish fiddling four consecutive years. Jeremy has performed at hundreds of concerts and festivals over the past five years including the Millennium Stage of the Kennedy Center, "Prairie Home Companion," Chicago Celtic Fest, Bethlehem Musicians, Detroit Festival of the Arts & Milwaukee Irish Fest. His first CD, Celtic Fiddle, was called "one of the top 20 Celtic albums of 2000," and certainly the best by a new young artist," by the syndicated radio show Celtic Connections. Jeremy's second release, Koinning, received praise from a broad range of publications including Sing Out and Fiddler Magazine, and took 2nd place for Best Celtic Instrumental Album in the international competition, just Plain Folks. As one reviewer commented, "It's a much over-used cliché, but I really believe this is what genius sounds like."
